Lenten Art Exhibit Call for Entries

“I Hunger for You” is the theme for Hope’s fifth annual Lenten art display. God is a living, working, creative force in our lives and through art we express, explore, and solidify our faith experiences. During worship, we express ourselves through art in a variety of ways: music, dance, drama, banners, sets and occasionally technology. However, this is limiting. We are offering a place to display paintings, drawings, sculptures, photography, needlework, poetry, etc. Works will be displayed at Hope Lutheran Church from March 21 – April 4, 2010.

Eligibility

Participation is open to all artists. A separate exhibit will be arranged for youth. Works in all media will be accepted. It is preferred that all entries be of the artists’ own creation. All work must be ready for hanging and display. Hope Lutheran Church reserves the right to reject any work that cannot be properly displayed because of fragility or subject matter. Please don’t submit art that was displayed last year.

Entry Procedure

Each artist may submit up to three (3) entries. Complete entry form (below), printing or typing your name as you wish it to appear. Mail entry form to Hope Lutheran Church, 39200 W. Twelve Mile, Farmington Hills, MI 48331, place it in the “Art Exhibit” box on the office workroom table. All entry forms must be received by Sunday, March 14, 2010.
